CARDINAL'S RESIDENCE
2101 Commonwealth Avenue
Brighton, Massachusetts 02135

May 27, 1967

My dear Father McQuade:

Twenty years have come and gone since the founding of Merrimack College. During all that time this higher institution of learning has surpassed the fondest expectations of those of us who were identified with it since the days when it was only a dream.

You and I can recall its first beginnings: the purchase of the land, the appeal for funds, the breaking of ground for the first building, the first entrance class and the first commencement exercises. I can go back further and recall that on becoming Archbishop of Boston, about twenty-three years ago, I was impressed by the great need of another college under church-related auspices. Contacts were made with practically every teaching order of men in the Church in the United States, hoping that some group would be interested. All declined our invitation to build and staff a college with the assurance of our aid within the Archdiocese of Boston, on the grounds that they had no sufficient personnel. There was one exception, the Order of Saint Augustine. Despite the demands from other institutions your confreres graciously responded.

All agreed that the new institution should be in the area of Greater Lawrence where the Augustinian Fathers were well known and loved. This is the background of all the "first" in the history of Merrimack that we can recall on this twentieth anniversary.

You became the first President of the College. You had the responsibility, with the aid of your fellow religious and lay members of the faculty, of leading the institution into the unchartered territory of the future. I deem it a great honor to congratulate you for your tireless efforts over the past two decades. All others who have worked with you or under you merit also a tribute of praise on this happy anniversary.

There is no need of me narrating the various phases of the growth and development of the College. They are well known by you, the administrators, the faculty members, the alumni, the friends and benefactors of Merrimack College.

Private colleges today are faced with many problems. The charity dollar that helps to maintain them cannot compete with the tax dollar invested in State Universities. But there is a great need for these private colleges and those identified with the business, professional and industrial world should do everything within their power to encourage these private colleges to meet the educational demands of modern times. Governments, local and national, should do likewise. A college education is costly but it must be made available to all who qualify for it.

I pray that in honor of the twentieth anniversary of Merrimack benefactors shall be prompted to come forth and give generously to this young college. Older institutions have many sources of aid, in addition to a large alumni. Youthful Merrimack is still struggling to complete its necessary facilities. It deserves to be helped by those who admire the Augustinians for their courage in starting a new college only two decades ago, and by those who are grateful to Merrimack for making higher education possible in a sector of the Archdiocese of Boston where a college was greatly needed. Tuitions alone cannot maintain a college. Additional aid must come from people and sources capable of giving financial assistance. This is a good time for all of us to help Merrimack.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Richard Cardinal Cushing

Richard Cardinal Cushing
Archbishop of Boston

JOHN A. VOLPE
GOVERNOR

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON

TO MERRIMACK COLLEGE

I am indeed pleased to extend the greetings of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and my own personal congratulations to the President, administrators, faculty and students of Merrimack College on the occasion of its Twentieth Anniversary.

In the past two decades, Merrimack College has surely distinguished itself in the education of our young citizens, instilling in them not only a sound basis of knowledge and wisdom for future practical experience, but also a fine sense of Christian integrity and determination, which will make them strong leaders of tomorrow's world.

Today, the continued physical expansion of the College stands as a symbol of the relentless progress being made in all areas of its students' interest, in order that its graduates may keep stride with our ever-advancing frontiers, and create from them a better society in which to live and grow.

Please accept my earnest wishes and my confidence that the coming decades will prove even more successful and brighter for Merrimack College than have the past two decades of fulfillment.

Sincerely,

Governor

Most Holy Father,

Rev. Vincent A. McQuade, O.S.A.
and the present Merrimack College Community on the occasion of the completion of twenty years of Catholic education, May 28, 1967, humbly beg a special

Apostolic Blessing

as a pledge of divine graces and favors.

A barren, rock-strewn tract of land, a man, a dream . . . three hundred young men hitched their wagons to a rising star . . . the first Chapel, dedicated to Our Mother of Good Counsel . . . outdoor rally in Lawrence Memorial Stadium begins the search for money . . . the blessed headline: "Merrimack College Building Fund Drive Oversubscribed" . . . then, as now, the beneficent eye of Richard Cushing over all . . .

MERRIMACK STUDENTS AT DEDICATION

Th. nearly 900 students of Merrimack College are shown above attending dedication Mass Wednesday morning, November 10, in the newly completed gymnasium back of the present building used for classrooms. The Mass was the first event in the 80 by 160 foot structure and it was the last time that all students were ever assembled in a body. Very Rev. Vincent A McQuade, O. S. A., president of the college (inset) offered the Mass.

To the students of Merrimack College:

This year's Merrimackan has been a new, exciting and challenging experience for everyone connected with the yearbook.

I know that you will find this year's book completely different from those of past years. This is the first year that we have had William J. Keller Inc. of Buffalo, N.Y. This company has enabled the yearbook staff to employ new techniques. This has been the first year that color has been employed to such a great extent. This has been the first year that the cover has been changed. This has been the first year that we have done our own layouts.

All the changes that you see in this year's book has been done after careful consideration by the staff. The sole criteria for all these changes has been to give to you, the students of Merrimack College, the best possible yearbook.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our moderator, Fr. McGettigan, and the entire Merrimackan staff. Members of the staff have delayed and curtailed their vacations to stay on campus and work on the book. They have been a very dedicated group and receive my heartfelt thanks.

I would also like to thank Merrimack College for giving to me the opportunity to serve as Editor-in-Chief of the Merrimackon. It has been a wonderful experience and I am confident that the 1967 Merrimackan is the type of yearbook you want.

Sincerely,
John F. Kendrick
Editor-in-Chief
